

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement

LESSON FIFTEEN: WORLD CHRISTIAN PARTNERSHIP QUIZ

Name: _____

Date: _____

	NOTES
1. What is a "sender?" Describe how senders view their role and what kinds of things they do to advance the cause of world evangelization. (3pts)
2. What is a "wartime lifestyle" and why is it important in the life of a world Christian? (3pts)
3. Some churches have an ambition to plant churches among unreached peoples. Why have the most effective among them either started a new mission structure or formed a partnership with an existing mission structure? (3 pts)
4. ___ Which one of the following sentences reflects the lessons which have been learned by mature leaders in the global mission movement? (1 pt) <ul style="list-style-type: none">a. American churches should gradually stop sending their own missionaries in order to free up scarce mission funds to support the much more efficient and effective non-Western missionaries.b. Non-Western missionaries are always the most effective missionaries to people of their country.c. Since non-Western mission efforts cost so little, standard measures of accountability and supervision

can be minimized. d. Effective partnerships with non-Western missionaries take time and relational energy. e. Generous giving from American churches can bring great relief to non-Western churches by providing all the necessary funding for their missionaries.
5. ____ Which way of understanding God's will is the best beginning point for "World Christians" in understanding how they can lead the most significant life of obedience to God? (1 pt) a. God's will as He is accomplishing it throughout the world. b. God's will as a complete life-plan for the obedient Christian. c. God's will as a predetermined pathway that people end up doing no matter what they choose. d. God's will as minute-to-minute guidance without concern about what will happen years later. e. God's will as a private matter of insight with no interference from sincere, but older Christians of a generation with their work complete.
6. How does one become a "World Christian?" How does a person continue to grow as a "World Christian?" (2 pts)
7. In what ways is the role of a "mobilizer" different from the role of a missionary? Why can the work of mobilizers be considered as strategic and valuable as the work of missionaries? (3 pts)

8. Describe an example of a "strategic evangelism partnership." Describe who the partners were, why it was strategic and how evangelism or church planting has been attempted. (3 pts)

9. Some have argued that the people group approach divides the body of Christ. How is people specific church planting necessary for genuine brotherhood and reconciliation between peoples? (3 pts)